04/09/07 Ledger (at)	Earning college credit in real life	NJ section page 13,17	12 inches	14 Rutgers students put together a Folk Festival for college credit. Believed to be only student-run folk festival in the country. Focus on need for more courses that offer real-life experiences.	Program has been run by students since it was founded in 1975. Promotes hands-on learning that is applicable in the professional world.
04/09/07 Ledger (at)	Amid city's violence are plans for peace	NJ section page 15	15 inches	Study by the Police Executive Research Forum found Newark to have a 25 percent hike in homicides from 85 in 2004 to 105 in 2006. Meanwhile, other serious crimes like aggravated assault have declined during the past decade. In 2007 crime is down by 30 percent in Newark and shootings have dropped by 42 percent.	Article said that Rutgers Police Institute research revealed that a small number of African American young men with long records are responsible for gun carrying, drug dealing, gang activity and shootings. I think this is a dangerous conclusion to make and that it reinforces the negative light that African American men are stereotyped by media. Also article encouraged hope b/c of programs like Safer, Operation CeaseFire. City is accredits law enforcement, governmental agencies, social and mental health agencies, faith-based organizations, social scientists and the community for being well organized.

04/12/07 Ledger (at)	It's the other 'N' word that's still hair raising	Page 14	10 in.	Article discusses the use of the word nappy and its significance for the black community. The article focuses on Carolivia Herron who wrote a book "Nappy Hair" which was met with contempt by parents when read in school. Article focuses on how society makes young black men and women feel that if they wear their hair in its natural state, Afro or locks, that they will have difficulty getting a job in white corporate America. Also, focuses on pressures that black women face when styling their hair imposed by society, parents, partners and their careers.	Title is almost offensive because it almost mocks the comments made by Imus in an underhanded way. Although, article itself touches upon the reality of how the word nappy is interpreted by women. Interesting that this perspective ran in a mainstream paper but glad that it detailed some of the stereotypes and negativity associated with use of nappy.
04/12/07 Ledger (at)	Justices: Prosecution can use post-killing details at Williams retrial	Cover of NJ section; Page 24	4 in. on Cover	State Supreme Court yesterday ruled that prosecutors may retry former NBA star Jayson Williams using details of what he did after killing a man. Williams tried to cover up evidence by removing finger prints, hide bloody clothing as well as creating a fake alibi while his limo driver lay bleeding from a shot and gasping for air. Williams was convicted in 2002 on four counts of cover-up but the jury never reached a verdict on the count of reckless manslaughter. SC ruling is a huge victory for Hunterdon County prosecutors. In re:

Petition to Deny Renewal Application
For License of Station
WWOR-TV, Secaucus, NJ
a FOX TELEVISION STATION

PETITION TO DENY LICENSE RENEWAL APPLICATIONS

AFFIDAVIT OF CHARLES LOVEY IN SUPPORT OF

1.

My name is Charles Lovey. I am a viewer of TV in Northern and Central New Jersey. I am filing this declaration on behalf of Voice for New Jersey. Voice for New Jersey is a community organization that whose goal is to increase media attention on New Jersey and improve the quality of the media coverage that NJ receives.

2.

In April 2007, I electronically parsed, reviewed, and analyzed the Quarterly Issues and Programming Reports prepared by WWOR for the year 2006 and 1st quarter of 2007. Using the information provided by the station in these filings, the stories were identified by location (New Jersey vs. NYC and boroughs, Staten Island, Other NY, Connecticut, other local and national/international) and by subject matter (government/politics, crime/law enforcement/ tabloid, human interest, and general news).

3.

The analysis (attached in Exhibit B) revealed that

- WWOR reported LESS THAN 10 HOURS OF TOTAL PROGRAMMING in its Issues and Programming Reports covering the first three quarters of 2006. For the fourth quarter of 2006 and the first quarter of 2007, WWOR stopped reporting the airtime of its stories altogether.
- WWOR's coverage of New Jersey issues is completely inadequate. Of the 9.85 hours of coverage reported in the first three quarters of 2006, a scant 2.66 hours (27%) was dedicated to New Jersey stories. By way of contrast, 4.72 hours of coverage was dedicated to New York stories—more than 77% more broadcast time.

- Of the total 278 New Jersey stories reported over 5 quarters, 28% focused on negative content (i.e. crime, law enforcement, and other sensational stories such as “Guns Near School”, “Fighting Gangs”, “Videotaping Pervert”, etc.); 46% covered government and politics (taxes, civil unions, elections, etc.) and only the remaining 26% were dedicated to general news and issues (affordable housing, health, education, etc.)
- For the 1st Quarter of 2007, only seven (7) stories IN TOTAL were included in the WWOR Issues and Programming Quarterly Report.

Further, I have analyzed the contents of the eleven reports that were attached as Exhibit 25 to WWOR’s Application for License Renewal in a section entitled “Service to New Jersey”. The content of these reports is a subset of the combined content of WWOR’s quarterly “Issues and Programming Reports” for a given year, and set forth the station’s public interest programming which is specific to New Jersey for the years 1999 – 2006. To verify consistency between the 2006 “Service to New Jersey” report and our analysis of WWOR’s “Issues and Programming Reports” for the same time period, the contents of the two reports were compared, with particular emphasis on the analysis of news coverage as described in the “Programming and Issues” section of this document.

This analysis is summarized in Exhibit C hereto and has yielded the following information.

- WWOR’s own reporting reveals a very inconsistent approach to covering New Jersey issues, and an overall lack of adequate news coverage. As shown in Exhibit C, WWOR’s “Service to New Jersey” reports indicate a total of 1,354 New Jersey news stories for the years 1999 – 2006. This suggests an average of less than 170 New Jersey news stories per year, or LESS THAN ONE NEW JERSEY STORY EVERY TWO DAYS.

- Results for 2005 skew these results upward. Over one half of the news stories reported (715 of 1,354 stories) were aired in 2005. The 2005 period saw an explosion in the reporting of crime stories, with 372 crime stories reported in this period. Many of these stories had a lurid, tabloid quality with titles such as "Murder at McDonalds" and "Rape at Rutgers".

- Other issues raised in the "Service to New Jersey" attachments serve as additional indications of WWOR's failure to provide adequate service to its community of license. For example, the airing of Public Service Announcements (PSA's) is typically viewed as a significant component in a station's public service obligations. WWOR reported only 10 public service announcements aired in the 2005 – 2006 period. There was NO reporting of PSA's in any of the other periods from 1999 to 2005.

- In addition to WWOR's lack of New Jersey news coverage and PSA's, the station's reported level of public affairs programming is also inadequate. For 2006, only 30 New Jersey public affairs programs were aired. All or substantially all of these programs air for 30 minutes, meaning that WWOR AVERAGES LESS THAN 1.5 HOURS OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMMING EACH MONTH.

- We have compared the news programming set forth in the four quarterly "Issues and Programming Reports" for 2006 and compared them to the "Service to New Jersey" attachments to WWOR's renewal application. A total of 215 New Jersey news stories were listed in the 2006 attachments. Curiously, WWOR only chose to include the periods from January 1 to August 30, 2006, and October 21 to October 31, 2006 in this report. Our analysis of the quarterly Issues and Programming Reports identified 190 news stories relating to New Jersey for these same time periods.

- In analyzing the 2006 "Service to New Jersey" news stories, we quickly identified 7 stories that plainly are not New Jersey stories, and three stories that are duplicated. Subtracting these yields a net 205 news stories reported in the "Service to New Jersey" attachments.

- While there is still some discrepancy, (for example, some sports stories are included in the "Service to New Jersey" totals and not in the "Issues and Programming" totals), there is reasonable congruence between the two analyses, and the "Service to New Jersey" report does not contain any information that would cause us to question the validity of our analysis of the Issues and Programming Reports.

As a lifelong resident of northern New Jersey, a registered voter and a concerned citizen, I have joined Voice for New Jersey, as its goals are reflective of my concerns regarding the lack of adequate news and election coverage afforded me by the stations in the New York Media Market. I am most concerned with those stations that are licensed in my state and have both the opportunity and the obligation to provide me with substantive information concerning the issues within my state and local community. As a viewer of WWOR, I performed this analysis in support of the overall cause being spearheaded by Voice for New Jersey. Further, I have read their petition and agree with its contents.

I, Charles Lovey, hereby swear that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Executed on April 26, 2007.

(Signature of Declarant)
